

Table of Contents

| | |
|---|-----------|
| Introduction | 4 |
| Chapter 1: What is business credit and what are its benefits? | 4 |
| Business credit and its calculation | 4 |
| Dun & Bradstreet | 4 |
| Equifax | 5 |
| Experian | 5 |
| Differences between Business Credit and Personal Credit | 5 |
| Best Ways to Establish Business Credit | 6 |
| End of Chapter Questions | 6 |
| Chapter 2: What is the best business credit card you should get? | 8 |
| Benefits of a Business Credit Card | 8 |
| The 5/24 rule of banks | 8 |
| Midsize banks: Regions Bank | 9 |
| Other banks | 9 |
| Chase Business Ink Credit Card | 9 |
| American Airlines Aviator Business Card | 10 |
| Capital One Spark Card | 10 |
| American Express Credit Cards | 10 |
| End of Chapter Questions | 10 |
| Chapter 3: How to get a business credit card with poor credit? | 12 |
| Credit reports, Good and Bad Credit | 12 |
| Establishing your business | 12 |
| Contacting the right people | 13 |
| PayPal Business | 13 |
| Square Business | 13 |
| Kabbage | 14 |
| Hard vs Soft Personal Credit Pull | 14 |
| End of Chapter Questions | 15 |
| Chapter 4: How to Build Business Credit Without Personal Guarantee | 16 |
| Legally Separating Your Business From Yourself | 16 |
| Reviewing and Improving Credit Reports | 16 |
| Establishing and Maintaining An Excellent Payment Track Record | 16 |
| Improving Personal Credit | 16 |
| End of Chapter Questions | 16 |
| Chapter 5: Building Business Credit Using Net 30 Payment Terms | 16 |
| What Are Net 30 Payment Terms? | 16 |

| | |
|---|----|
| Applying For and Getting Vendor Lines of Credit | 16 |
| Using Vendor Lines of Credit For Building Business Credit | 16 |
| Paying on time | 16 |
| Paying on time | 16 |
| Multiple Lines of Credit | 16 |
| End of Chapter Questions | 16 |